Ms. Molly Lahr grew up in central Pennsylvania all her life! She graduated as a student-athlete from Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary School ('10) and Bishop McDevitt High School ('14). Today, she is an active parishioner of Seven Sorrows in Middletown as Confirmation Coordinator, Children's Rosary Co-coordinator and newly inducted member of the Council of Catholic Women.

In 2017, Molly enrolled in the Catechetics Program at Franciscan University of Steubenville, OH. In the Spring Semester ('18), she had to medically withdrawal; however, that did not refrain her from catechizing! When she returned to PA, Molly became Confirmation Coordinator of her home parish and frequently attend Adoration and daily Mass. It was during her time in Adoration she heard Christ "welcoming her home." Meditating on those words, Molly became persistent to accept the Youth Ministry Coordinator Position for Seven Sorrows and St. Peter's Parish in Elizabethtown. Molly describes her witness as a direct call and response of doing God's Will for His Children. She's excited to "welcome" as many children and young adults back into God's Home!

During her free-time, Molly enjoys drinking iced coffee (year-round), reading Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events books with her Goddaughter, free-writing young-adult fiction stories, and doing yoga. She is engaged to her fiancé, Mike, for one year but have been together for four years. Together, they enjoy hiking and watching Washington Capitals Hockey Games.
